A Written Plan

Every employer should have a written Safety & Health plan. This is our plan. Please read it carefully. While no plan can guarantee an accident-free workplace, following the safety procedures set forth in this manual will significantly reduce the risk of danger to you and your co-workers. Thank you for all your focus on safety.

Introduction to Our Program

State and federal law, as well as company policy, make the safety and health of our employees the first consideration in operating our business. Safety and health in our business must be a part of every operation, and every employee's responsibility at all levels. It is the intent of SCS to comply with all laws concerning the operation of the business and the safety and health of our employees and the public. To do this, we must constantly be aware of conditions in all work areas that can produce or lead to injuries.

No employee is required to work at a job known to be unsafe or dangerous to their health. Your cooperation in detecting hazards, reporting dangerous conditions, and controlling workplace hazards is a condition of employment. Inform your supervisor immediately of any situation beyond your ability or authority to correct. Employees will not be disciplined or suffer any retaliation for reporting a safety violation in good faith.

Safety First Priority

The personal safety and health of each employee is of primary importance. Prevention of occupationally induced injuries and illnesses is of such consequence that it will be given precedence over operating productivity. To the greatest degree possible, management will provide all mechanical and physical protection required for personal safety and health, but our employees must bear primary responsibility for working safely. A little common sense and caution can prevent most accidents from occurring.

Individual Cooperation Necessary

S.C. Swiderski, LLC maintains a safety and health program conforming to the best practices of our field. To be successful, such a program must embody proper attitudes towards injury and illness prevention on the part of supervisors and employees. It requires cooperation in all safety and health matters, not only between the employer and employee but between the employee and all co-workers. Only through such a cooperative effort can a safety and health program in the best interest of all be established and preserved. Safety is no accident; think always about safety and the job will be safer.
